

Abstract: The essay focuses on the complex interactions who can arise between the rules of the textual criticism and the acquisitions of the history of language. As it comes out from the examples mentioned in the paper, in particular from the Homeric text, veritable situations of conflict can occur.

Keywords: Textual criticism, Text history, History of Greek language, Poetic language, Homeric grammar.