

Abstract: In the Theognidea, ll. 323-8, 595-8 and 1171-6 are to be interpreted as examples of dialogic sequences born for/from the performance at symposium. The paper discusses the exegetical and textual problems of the three passages.

Keywords: Theognis, Ancient Greek elegy, Symposium, Performance, Symposiac 'catena'.